His follow-up, Bigger and Deffer, proved a turning point: Its two breakout singles, Im Bad and I Need Love, crossed him over to a mainstream audience, but also drew plenty of haters, including Ice-T and Kool Moe Dee.. The production is much fuller here than the previous disc, but thankfully LLs commanding voice is never lost in the mix.

The muscle-bound teenager quickly proved he was no one-hit wonder, and his 1985 debut, Radio, rocked boom boxes across the land, thanks to hits like the title track and Rock the Bells.

As a result, LL has often fought to reclaim his rap throne -- with battle tracks like Jack the Ripper and To Da Break of Dawn -- while wooing pop and RB fans with hits like Around the Way Girl and Hey Love..
